

Using #48 Truffles for other MSD girls

Please note: The suggested alterations are just suggestions! I have not tested these alterations. These suggestions are based on dressing other MSDs in the prototypes, and pinning, tucking, and folding until the proportions looked right. I HIGHLY recommend making a test-run using paper towels or scrap fabric. I hope the information below provides a jumping-off point for your own fitting adventures!

1. The drafting model for #48 Truffles is Dollstown 7 Ganga:

Dollstown 7 year

Height: 46cm

Chest: 18cm

Waist: 15.7cm

Hips: 21cm

The original #48 pattern is custom-sized for the Dollstown 7 year body.

2. Kaye Wigg's Annabella/Nyssa/Koneko/Miki:

Dress – Use the original #48 Dress Bodice for DT7

Coat – The prototype Coat fit over Nyssa's large hands, but the fabric that I used is very lightweight wool with a bit of "give". You may want to add 1/8" to 1/4" along the side seams of the Lower Sleeve pattern just to make sure you have enough width for her hands. Otherwise, a perfect fit!

3. The drafting model for the complimentary 43cm PD Dress Bodice pattern is 43cm Planetdoll Riz:

For the dress, you might try starting with #20 Lilac Afternoon, straighten the sides of the bodice, and shorten the bodice to ribcage length.

For other sculpts...either smaller (vinyl Goodreau/Ellowyne) or larger (SD size), select an existing bodice pattern that is custom-sized for your bjd (e.g. #20 Lilac Afternoon, #10#11 Takeshita dori, or others). Straighten the sides of the bodice (for a less-fitted shape), and shorten the bodice to ribcage length. Use a percentage reduction or enlargement for the Coat.
